Explanatory Notes:

- External collaborators engaged directly by the Official Meetings, Documentation and Relations Department (RELMEETINGS) for the translation of ILO official documents, different fee rates and methodology will apply
- In case of a retiree to be engaged with an external collaboration contract, the gross amount of the contractually stipulated fee, excluding travel or daily subsistence allowance, shall not exceed the equivalent of six months of the net base salary at step 6 of the P.4 grade, per calendar year. For 2027, this amount corresponds to US$47,692.
- The above fees represent exact daily fees and are not ranges. For example, in Zimbabwe: the daily fee for a normal translation without editing must be 170 USD and with editing 192 USD. The office cannot choose to pay a fee in between these two figures. The daily fee for translators is established on the basis of the daily output of 1,650 words per day of work.
- The ILO's daily fee rates for external collaborators engaged to do translation and interpretation work are valid for a period of six months from the date indicated in the title above. Any translation and interpretation external collaboration contract with a start date falling within the six-month period should be established based on the fee range in this table.
- In case the external collaboration contract is established in local currency, the United Nations operational rate of exchange at the time of establishing the contract will be used to convert the USD daily fee into the local currency amount.
- Once the contract is established between the ILO and the external collaborator, the fee amount (whether in USD or in local currency) is not subject to adjustment throughout the contract period.
- Offices can use local rosters for UN non-official languages. For translation of documents in the 7 UN official languages, RELMEETINGS should still approve the addition of the translator to the official roster.
- Editing and/or proofreading of translated documents should be remunerated at 50% of the applicable daily rate, based on a standard output of 1,650 words per day.
