

Respond to the needs of the market by creating economic activities

© Ilo/Alfredo caliz

© Ilo/Alfredo caliz

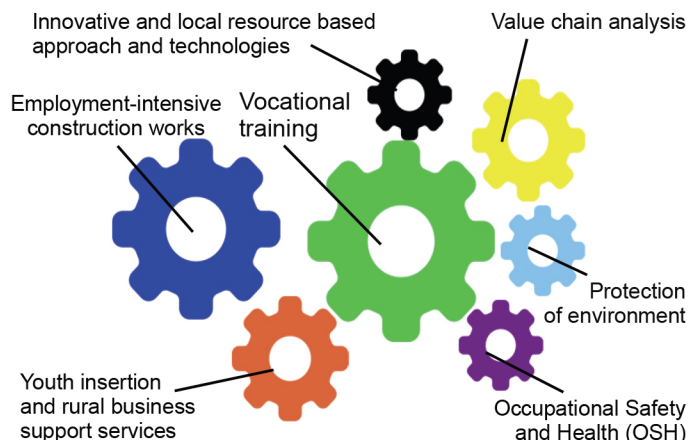

-> Local labor market
-> Local and green materials
-> Training and Skills development
-> Employment-intensive investment programs
-> Entrepreneurship and enterprise development

© Ilo/Alfredo caliz

Construct quality vocational infrastructures and contribute to the decentralization of vocational training programs

Axis of intervention

Villa 181, Ilot K, 35 rue 42-141

Tevragh El Zeina - BP 620

Nouakchott - Mauritanie

Tel : +222 45241960E

Mail : <http://www.ilo.org>

Facebook : Bureau des projets du BIT en Mauritanie

Bureau BIT Bassikounou

Supported by the generous contribution of the Government of Japan

Decent work is the driver of sustainable employment that changes lives

© Ilo/Alfredo caliz

Promoting youth employment opportunities for refugees and host community with employment-intensive construction works in Mauritania

© Ilo/Alfredo caliz

Objectives

- Improving employability of women and men through labor-intensive construction works
- Promoting local economic development through eco-construction technologies, resilience to climate change and use of locally available resources
- Promoting rural decent work, including Social protection, Occupational Safety of Health and non-discrimination at work
- Youth employment and empowerment to prevent radicalization

Expected results

450

Youth trained annually

100%

Of trainees certified

1000

of local authorities and communities sensitized on OSH and decent work conditions

2

New infrastructures constructed annually

1

OSH inspection conducted per construction site

Youth insertion and rural business support service structure established

Decent work: Pathway to a better life

© Ilo/Alfredo caliz

Fostering durable livelihoods and rural decent work

© Ilo/Alfredo caliz

Promoting peaceful coexistence

Decent work builds peace and stability of societies

© Ilo/Alfredo caliz

Partners

Directorate of Vocational Training Nema Technical and Vocational Training School (EETFP)
Local Authorities
Coordination of Partners in Bassikounou
ANAPEJ
UNHCR
Private sector
Trade Unions

