

enterPRIZE Job Creation Challenge Photo Gallery

Banner

Hopolang Phororo , Director – ILO CO-Harare welcoming guests to the launch

Guests chatting before the formal proceedings

- 20 – Guests sharing a joke!

The youthful band, Gwenga (mean Desert in Shona).

Ms Phororo with the President of the Employers' Confederation of Zimbabwe (EMCOZ) – Mr Jack Murehwa

Some of the guests, including the UN Women Deputy Country Representative, Ms Revai Makanje.

The Chief Technical Adviser for the SKILLS for Youth Employment and Rural Development Programme, Manzoor Khaliq, explaining the programme.

Nathan Mazvarira, a beneficiary. Before the programme he could not afford rent for the one room he shared with his wife and children. After the training under the programme, Nathan now makes furniture, owns furniture outlets in three towns, is building his own house and he EMPLOYS 23 people!! He is confident he will win the competition which will enable him to grow his business further.

Lorietta Chidamba, who used to be a full time house wife, now runs a beauty salon, and employs three people. She hopes to expand her business into a luxury beauty parlour if she wins the competition.

Tammy, still in school uniform, aspires to be a successful musician one day! The powerful voice belies the small girl! With the right support, Tammy will go places!

The ILO Director with the Deputy Minister of Sports, Art and Culture, Hon. Tabeth Kanengoni, who was the guest of honour.

ILO Harare staff celebrating the launch!

Tammy with the very capable Coordinator of Ceremony – Isabella Matambanadzo

