

NATIONAL WOMEN ECONOMIC EMPOWERMENT JUBILEE EXPO
MULUNGUSHI INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE CENTRE
19-23 JULY 2014

THEME: WOMEN AS CHANGE AGENTS FOR NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND PROSPERITY

DRAFT PROGRAMME

| Day 1, Friday 18th July 2014 |                                                                                                     |                                                   |             |  |
|------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------|-------------|--|
| TIME                         | ACTIVITY                                                                                            | SPEAKERS/PARTICIPANTS                             | FACILITATOR |  |
| 15:00 -18:00                 | Arrival, Check in and Registration all different Hotels and Lodges                                  | Empowered Women/Entrepreneurs from outside Lusaka | MGCD        |  |
| Day 2                        |                                                                                                     |                                                   |             |  |
| 08:00-08:30                  | Registration and Networking opportunitiesDomestic Tourism Promotion Video presentation scroller | All delegates                                     | MGCD        |  |
| 08:30 -08:45                 | Welcome Remarks andObjectives of the Conference:(what expo is all about)                | PS MGCD                                           | MGCD        |  |

|                                    |                                                                        |                                                |                                                                     |  |
|------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| 08:45 -0915                        | Motivation Talk:Success is within reach of every woman.            | President ZNFU Dr. Evelyn Nguleka              | ILO – John Banda                                                    |  |
| 09:15 -09:30                       | Address by the Minister of Gender and Child Development                | Hon. Inonge Wina                               | PS MGCD                                                             |  |
| 09:30-10:00                        | Health Break and break up into training groups                  |                                                |                                                                     |  |
| 10:30 -13:00                       | PLENARY SESSIONS (TRAININGS):(Break into 10 working groups)        | Participants to be put in 10 groups of 30 each | Facilitation of Training ProgrammesManuals and MaterialsILO |  |
| Networking Lunch            |                                                                        |                                                |                                                                     |  |
| 14:00 -17:00                       | Continuation of Working groups                                         |                                                | Facilitation by Trainers                                            |  |
| Day 3                       |                                                                        |                                                |                                                                     |  |
|                                    | Continuation of Group Training                                         |                                                |                                                                     |  |
| Day 4                       |                                                                        |                                                |                                                                     |  |
| 14:00 -17:00                       | Preparation for Exhibitions                                            |                                                |                                                                     |  |
| Day 5, Tuesday 21 July 2014 |                                                                        |                                                |                                                                     |  |
| 07:30-08:30                        | Performance by National Dance Troupe                                   | As participants take their seats               | MGCD                                                                |  |
|                                    | Official Opening                                                |                                                |                                                                     |  |
| 08:30-08:35                        | National Anthem                                                        | All                                            | MC                                                                  |  |
| 08:35-08:40                        | Prayer                                                                 | All                                            | MC                                                                  |  |
| 08:40-08:45                        | Welcome Remarks                                                        | PS Daisy Ngambi                                | MGCD                                                                |  |
| 08:45-09:00                        | Bank of Zambia Governor: Jubilee Conversations: What the bank is doing | Dr. Michael Gondwe                             | BOZ                                                                 |  |
| 09:00-09:15                        | Women Empowerment Principles and Women Leading Business:               | Ms Janet Rogan – Resident                      | UNDP Viola Morgan                                                   |  |

|              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                              |                                     |
|--------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
|              | Implementing the Principles/Policies                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Coordinator UNDP                                                                                                                             |                                     |
| 09:15 -09:30 | Women as Change Agents for National Development and Prosperity                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Mr. Aeneas C Chuma ILOAssistant Director –General andRegional Director for Africa                                                    | ILO Tapera Muzira                   |
| 09:15-09:30  | Official Jubilee Conversations: Empowered Women Leading business verses Government Policy Implementation by the Minister of Gender and Child Development (Why is MGCD involved in this Expo?)                                                                                                      | Honourable Inonge Wina MP                                                                                                                    | Mrs. Daisy NgambiPS MGCD        |
| 09:30-09:40  | Learning by doing: Relevant Drama by creative arts group                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                              | Relevant Dramagroup to be named |
| 10:00 -10:30 | Health Break Networking and VIPs Tour of Exhibition Stands                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                              |                                     |
| 10:30 -12:00 | Tour of Exhibition Stands:1. Women Cassava Value Chain Products2. Financial Sector Exhibition of Women Friendly Products and Services3. Creative arts (Drama, Music, Art crafts, fashion)4. Beans and Legumes Exhibition5. UN Information Centre booths6. Other exhibitors | Exhibitors-ILO-Bankers Association of Zambia-ILO-UNMGCD                                                              | BAZ/BOZ/ILO/MGCD                |
| 10:30-12:00  | PLENARYHumble Beginnings (5 Speakers 10 minutes each)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Doreen MwanzaAvondale Academy ProprietorChairlady –George Compoundgroup(Mrs Judith Mwila to providetwo additional names) | Sylva Banda                         |
| 12:00-13:00  | PLENARY SESSION:Talk Show: Journey to Success:<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Tips for Corporate Career Success</li> <li>Inspirational success story</li> <li>Effort for Women Empowerment</li> <li>Mentoring for Success</li> </ul>                                                | Mizinga MeluChimango ChikwandaDr. Tukiya K. MabulaMrs. Margaret Mudenda                                                          | Ms Viola Morgan                     |

|                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                            |                            |
|--------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------|----------------------------|
|                                                  | Embrace Fear, Play bigger, be the champion of CHANGE                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                            |                            |
| LUNCH                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                            |                            |
| 14:00-15:30                                      | PLENARY SESSIONS - Panel Discussion: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Rural Young Women in Agri Business</li> <li>World Café- Challenges and Opportunities in Women Entrepreneurship</li> <li>Implementation-Next steps to actual empowerment</li> </ul>  | 16 Rural Young Women                       | ILO/UNFPA/UNDP/ UNICEF/JCI |
| 15:30-15:45                                      | Healthy Break and Visit to the Exhibition                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Stands                              |                            |
| 15:45 -16:45                                     | PLENARY SESSIONS: What's on offer for young people?                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | MYS, Ministry of Commerce, CEEC, NYDC, AYE | PS Youth & Sport           |
| 16:45 -17:00                                     | Wrap up and actionable ideas                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                            | MGCD                       |
| Day 6, Wednesday 23 July 2014             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                            |                            |
| 09:00-10:00                                      | PLENARY SESSION: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Presentation of Research Findings on Access to Finance for Women and Young Women</li> </ul>                                                                                                             | BOZ, FEMNET (ZFAWIB), ZFE                  | BAZ/BOZ/ILO                |
| 10:00-10:30                                      | Healthy Break/Visit to Exhibition Stands                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                            |                            |
| 10:30 - 11:30                                    | PLENARY SESSION: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Tools and Programs being implemented by the Financial Sector for Women empowerment</li> </ul>                                                                                                           | Banks and Other Financial Institutions     | Annie Chalah (BAZ)         |
| 11:30 - 13:00                                    | Mentorship programme (Young women's Empowerment Clinic): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Personal Grooming</li> <li>Managing Finance – Savings and expenditure</li> <li>Career Progression</li> </ul>                                                           | Alchemy, JCI, Junior Reporters, CAI        | UN AGENCIES,               |
| Lunch and Visits to the Exhibition Stands |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                            |                            |
| 14:00 - 17:00                                    | Site Visit to three places in Lusaka: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Success stories that can be traced with women empowerment principals</li> <li>Success stories that can be traced with innovations</li> <li>Success stories with organic growth</li> </ul> | George, Ngombe and Palabana Farm           | ILO                        |

|               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                            |      |
|---------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------|------|
|               | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Success stories with funds from the financial institution (challenges on loans procurement: at what level did they obtain the funds-start up, middle or when fully fledged?)</li> </ul> |                                            |      |
| 18:00 - 21:00 | Cultural Evening to celebrate women successes and Zambia's Golden Jubilee.                                                                                                                                                       | Cultural groups from 7 provinces of Zambia | MGCD |