

International
Labour
Organization

Canada

Media Advisory

National Employment Office to launch E-Labour Exchange

Beirut (ILO News) – The National Employment Office (NEO) and the International Labour Organization (ILO) will unveil an electronic labour exchange on Friday (January 25), which enables jobseekers to access online information on job opportunities and occupational data, and links them to employers.

The event features the participation of:

- H.E. Judge Salim Jreissati, Minister of Labour
- Mr Jean Abi Fadel, Director General of the National Employment Office
- H.E. Ms Hillary Child-Adams, Ambassador of Canada to Lebanon
- Ms. Nada al-Nashif, ILO Regional Director for the Arab States

Funded by the Government of Canada through the Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA), the ILO project “Support to Public Employment Services in Lebanon: Strengthening the capacity of the National Employment Authority” aims to increase the institutional capacity of the NEO to provide employment services, to improve the connectivity of various municipalities, employers and jobseekers to a general network of employment related information, and to promote self-employment opportunities for women and men.

Location: Holiday Inn – Dunes, Beirut – Lebanon

Date: Friday 25 January 2013

Time: 3.30pm

For more information contact:

Rania Hokayem, National Project Coordinator hokayem@ilo.org

Sally Abu Yafeth, Project Assistant, abu-yafeth@ilo.org

Tel: +961 1 752 400

For media queries contact:

Farah Dakhallallah – Regional Communication & Public Information Officer

Mobile: +961 71 50 59 58

Email: dakhallallah@ilo.org