

In numbers

SfP-Malaysia's 2021 key milestones

Enhancing local TVET ecosystems

2

partnerships established with local TVET institutions (KISMEC and SSTC).

3

community-based workshops organized (Ranau and Turan Districts in Sabah).

2

studies on subnational skills needs analysis completed (Kedah and Sabah States).

2

pilot training courses developed and completed in Sabah.

63

stakeholders reached through the Kedah TVET/skills training network.

2

pilot training courses developed and ongoing in Kedah.

89

stakeholders reached through 2 partnership launching seminars, including high-level representatives, held (Kedah and Sabah).

107

beneficiaries trained in Sabah and Kedah.

Improving gender equality and social inclusion (GESI) in TVET

1

preliminary GESI mainstreaming in TVET guide developed.

1

framework of GESI challenge call designed.

1

initial training model for inclusiveness developed (Sabah).

2

employers' organizations engaged for the development of GESI career progression maps.

Integration of STEM in TVET

1

partnership with a national university established.

64

stakeholders reached through a partnership launching seminar.

1

study on situational and skills needs analysis conducted.

1

STEM skills framework for curriculum development drafted.

Enhancing industry engagement in TVET

2

final reports on industrial sectoral situational analysis completed (construction and food-processing)

91

key national stakeholders consulted and engaged through on-line seminars for sectoral analysis

7

seminars conducted on sectoral analysis, institutional mechanism for industry engagement in TVET, and skills for trade and economic diversification final report of institutions for industry engagement in TVET review developed.

1

1

capacity building seminar for quality apprenticeship organized.

2

pilot training programmes initiated (as part of apprenticeship and Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) in Kedah)

Improving skills demand and supply information systems

99

representatives from 37 public bodies trained on labour market information and skills demand assessment.

147

key national stakeholders consulted and engaged in 4 workshops conducted on the National Skills Registry.

