

International Labour Organization

Social Security (Minimum Standards) Convention, 1952 (No. 102)

► Social security protects people from social and economic risks. Convention No. 102 provides for 9 benefits.

Medical care

Unemployment benefit

Employment injury benefit

Maternity benefit

Survivors' benefit

Sickness benefit

Old-age benefit

Family and child benefit

Disability benefit

- To be effective, payments must be made periodically.
- Nationals (citizens) and non-national residents should have equality of treatment.

Read more online:

www.ilo.org/dyn/normlex/en/f?p=NORMLEXPUB:12100:0::NO::P12100_ILO_CODE:C102