

Global Event - Regional Day

07 July 2020

► Event agenda

Global situation and regional priorities

The first day of the Global Events week of the Summit will focus on the impact of COVID-19 on the world of work in five global regions and will address the immediate crisis response and how to build a better future of work post-pandemic. The ILO Director-General will provide a global overview before each of the ILO's Regional Directors report on the situation in their respective regions. The programme will feature highlights of regional events held in Africa, the Americas, Arab States, Asia and the Pacific and Europe and Central Asia on 1 and 2 July, along with the voices of members of the public relaying their experience and hopes for the future. It will conclude with a conversation with the ILO Director-General on how to build back better.
