

Summary in English of the interview

Efforts in Senegal have revolved around good governance, the fight against corruption. The government has also tried to create jobs.