

XXII World Congress on Safety and Health at Work

4-7 October 2020. Toronto, Canada

Prevention in the Connected Age

Global solutions to achieve safe & healthy work for all

Welcome

Welcome to the XXII World Congress on Safety and Health at Work 2020: Global Forum for Prevention.

The Congress opens its doors to the world every three years. This time, it is Canada's turn to welcome the global prevention community to the Metro Toronto Convention Centre on October 4-7, 2020.

We invite you to join this international gathering of global prevention leaders.

XXII World Congress on
Safety and Health
at Work 2020

4-7 October 2020. Toronto, Canada

A Global Forum on Prevention

The World Congress is a crucial global forum for the exchange of information and opinion by experts in safety and health, representatives of companies and employees, decision-makers from government and public authorities, social partners, and anyone active in the area of occupational safety and health.

Main Topics

- Innovations in Addressing Longstanding Safety and Health Challenges
- Implications of the Changing World of Work for Occupational Safety and Health
- Advancing a Culture of Prevention

Your Canadian Hosts

The Institute for Work & Health (IWH) is a Canadian leader in work injury and disability prevention research. IWH conducts and shares actionable research to promote, protect and improve the health and safety of working people.

The Canadian Centre for Occupational Health & Safety (CCOHS) is Canada's national resource for the advancement of workplace health and safety.

Registration

Congress Registration & Housing opens February 2019 at safety2020canada.com.

The Organizers

International
Labour
Organization

XXII World Congress on Safety and Health at Work

4-7 October 2020. Toronto, Canada

The City and Venue

Toronto is Canada's largest city and a world leader in business, finance, technology, entertainment and culture. Its large population of immigrants from all over the globe makes it one of the most multicultural cities in the world. With its vast green space, Toronto is known as a city within a park.

The Metro Toronto Convention Centre is located in the heart of downtown Toronto, just steps away from many major attractions.

XXII World Congress on
Safety and Health
at Work 2020

4-7 October 2020. Toronto, Canada

The Programme

The Congress Programme will be dynamic and interactive, showcasing experts, thought leaders and innovators from around the globe. The programme includes an opening event, plenary sessions, symposia, poster presentations, and special events. In addition, there is the International Media Festival for Prevention, technical tours, and an accompanying trade fair.

International Media Festival for Prevention

The International Media Festival for Prevention will be an integral part of the XXII World Congress on Safety and Health at Work. The festival offers an overview of videos and multimedia productions about safety and health at work from all over the world.

Trade Fair and Technical Tours

The International Safety and Health Exhibition will be held alongside the World Congress in 2020. Technical tours will also be available for interested groups.

Making Connections

Throughout the Congress there will be an emphasis on making connections between topics, delegates, and areas of expertise in order to advance our global vision of safe and healthy work for all.

Cultural and Social Events

Cultural and social events will be organized during the Congress.

Congress Languages

The languages of the World Congress are English, French, Spanish and German.

Contact

Congress Planner
International Congress Services
Suite 300, 1201 West Pender Street
Vancouver, British Columbia V6E 2V2
+1 604 681 2153
WorldCongress2020@icsevents.com