

Area of critical importance Jobs and Skills for youth
Knowledge-sharing workshop

What works on employment services for youth and why?

25-26 September 2014
Room: VII (R2 South)

International Labour
Organization

time table

Time	DAY ONE	DAY TWO
09:00–10:00	08.30 Registration 09.00 Opening remarks Objectives of the workshop Expectations of participants	Youth employment programmes Presentation of good practices (Uruguay, Russian Federation), Q&A Knowledge sharing: Design and sequence of youth employment services and programmes
10:30–12:00	Reaching out to young jobseekers Presentation of good practices (Cambodia and Jamaica), Q&A Knowledge sharing: Outreach strategies that work for youth	Youth employment programmes (cont.) Presentation (ILO): Evidence from impact evaluation of youth employment programmes Knowledge sharing: Evaluation systems of youth employment programmes
13:30–15:00	Career guidance and practices to ease the transition to work Presentation of good practices (Sweden and FYR of Macedonia), Q&A Knowledge sharing: Provision of effective labour market navigation skills by PES	Challenges and opportunities to provide effective services Knowledge sharing / Brainstorming
15:30–16:30	Profiling and targeting Presentation (ILO) and discussion of country practices, Q&A Knowledge sharing: Different mechanisms of profiling and targeting	What works? Lessons for future implementation and the way forward