

Interventions by the ILO Programme on Youth Employment (YEP) consist of data collection, analysis of country policies and programmes, policy and capacity building, technical assistance, advocacy and awareness-raising, advisory services, strategic partnerships through the promotion of cross-country and global peer networks, inter-Agency cooperation across United Nations and other international agencies, and collaboration between the private and public sectors at the international, regional and national levels.