

Safe work for youth toolkit – Introduction

The “Safe work for youth” Kit have materials designed for administrators, employers and young people about the occupational hazards and risks faced by young workers and what to do about them. These materials are in the form of templates in Microsoft WORD format. This makes them easy for you to adapt to your own situation, adding your own illustrations, case studies, and laws. This kit contains three packets.