

Nigeria: Projects

PROJECT TITLE	START DATE	END DATE	DONOR
West Africa cocoa/commercial agriculture programme to combat hazardous and exploitative child labour	30 September 2002	30 December 2006	United States
Objective: This project aims to contribute to the effective prevention and elimination of hazardous and exploitative child labour in commercial agriculture in West Africa. To achieve this objective, it will work on the capacity building of selected partners and concerned agencies, on the increasing of the awareness concerning this issue and on model interventions of social protection for the victims and their families. These activities will be accompanied by a sustainable child labour monitoring system and by an enhancing of the information and knowledge base.
Building the foundations for eliminating the worst forms of child labour in Anglophone Africa	30 September 2002	30 December 2006	United States
Objective: The purpose is to build the foundations for eliminating the worst forms of child labour in Anglophone Africa through two components: one focusing on interventions at the sub-regional level and one at the national level. The national level, at which capacity building projects will be implemented for the benefit of organizations and institutions within this particular country. At the sub-regional level, activities directed at all the countries benefiting from the programme will be undertaken. These activities will aim at sharing experience and information across the sub-region.
To eliminate Hazardous and Exploitative Child Labour in the Cocoa Sector in selected West African Countries	30 April 2003	28 February 2010	Social Partner - International Confectionery Association
Objective: This project aims to contribute to the effective prevention and elimination of hazardous and exploitative child labour in commercial agriculture in West Africa. To achieve this objective, it will work on the capacity building of selected partners and concerned agencies, on the increasing of the awareness concerning this issue and on model interventions of social protection for the victims and their families. Those activities will be accompanied by a sustainable child labour monitoring system and by an enhancing of the information and child labour knowledge base.
Combating the trafficking of children for labour exploitation in West and Central Africa	30 September 2004	30 June 2007	United States
Objective: The objective of this project is to contribute to a reduction in the incidence of trafficking in boys and girls for labour and sexual exploitation. To achieve this objective, the capacities of the stakeholders will be reinforced in order to address themselves the trafficking problem at the national, regional and local level. Direct services in order to reintegrate child trafficking victims and to reduce the vulnerability of children at risk will be carried out.
Eliminating the Worst Forms of Child Labour in West Africa and Strengthening Sub-Regional Cooperation through the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS)	01 March 2004	26 February 2006	Netherlands
Objective: This project aims to contribute to the elimination of the worst forms of child labour in West Africa through two immediate objectives. Firstly, accelerating the progress on the elimination of the worst forms of child labour in Ghana, Nigeria and Côte d'Ivoire. Secondly, reinforcing the role played by the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) in combating the worst forms of child labour in the sub-region.			