

We, therefore, wholeheartedly support the request for a referral from our Workers' representatives in the Governing Body and call for an urgent decision by the Governing Body to ensure an immediate referral of the dispute to the ICJ. In addition, since we firmly believe that the right to strike is an essential part of freedom of association and already elaborated by the ILO supervisory bodies, there will be no added value in a protocol complementing the convention to qualify the right to strike. On the contrary, any such attempt would generate a conflict with C.87 already guaranteeing the right to strike as a fundamental principle and right at work. This would further exacerbate the dispute rather than solve it. We are convinced that legal certainty through an advisory opinion of the ICJ that is binding on the ILO is urgently required.

Yours sincerely,

Hashem Jonah Abed
President of the F I T U
