II. Internal administration

5. Article 4.2(d) of the Staff Regulations states:

Vacancies in the Director and Principal Officer category shall be filled by the Director-General by transfer in the same grade, promotion or appointment. Such promotions or appointments, other than to vacancies in technical cooperation projects, shall be reported to the Governing Body with a short statement of the qualifications of the persons so promoted or appointed.

6. The following appointments and promotions are accordingly reported to the Governing Body:

Mr Alejandro Bonilla Garcia (Mexico)

Appointed Senior Actuarial Adviser to the Deputy Director-General for Policy (DDG/P) at the D.2 level with effect from 1 October 2013. Promotion to D.2 was reported to the Governing Body in March 2001. Promotion to D.1 was reported to the Governing Body in November 1998.

¹ As of the date of writing, an additional 22 ratifications/acceptances by member States, including three by States of chief industrial importance, were required for the instrument to enter into force.

Ms Loretta De Luca (Italy)

Appointed Senior Adviser to the Deputy Director-General for Field Operations and Partnerships (DDG/FOP) at the D.1 level with effect from 1 December 2013. Promotion to D.1 was reported to the Governing Body in November 2005.

Mr Antonio Graziosi (Italy)

Appointed Director of the ILO Decent Work Team and Country Office for Central and Eastern Europe in Budapest (DWT/CO–Budapest) and promoted to D.1 level with effect from 1 October 2013.

Born in 1957, Mr Graziosi, a labour economist by training, started his career as a researcher in economics. Between 1984 and 1986, he worked in the European Parliament in Brussels. He joined the ILO in 1986, and has principally been involved in the management of technical cooperation and capacity development. He has worked both at headquarters and in the field, in Africa, Latin America and at the International Training Centre of the ILO, in Turin, Italy. Between 2002 and 2004, he held the position of Deputy Director of the ILO Subregional Office for Central America, Haiti, Panama and the Dominican Republic. From March 2004 to October 2007, he was the manager of the ILO Resource Mobilization Team at headquarters. In 2007, he also acted as Director of the Inter-American Centre for Knowledge Development in Vocational Training (CINTERFOR), based in Montevideo, Uruguay. Between November 2007 and September 2013 he worked at the International Training Centre of the ILO in Turin as Director of Training Programmes.

Mr Emmanuel Julien (France)

Appointed Deputy Director of the Enterprises Department (ENTERPRISES) at the D.1 level with effect from 1 October 2013.

Born in 1963, Mr Julien studied law and holds a degree in Political Science from the Institut d'Etudes Politiques in Paris.

Mr Julien began his career as a front desk officer in a bank before joining the French Mouvement des Entreprises de France (MEDEF, formerly the CNPF) [Movement of French Enterprises] in 1989, working first as assistant to the Director of European and International Social Affairs and then becoming Head of Department in 1995. In 2003 he became Deputy Director of Industrial Relations, in charge of MEDEF's European and international affairs. He joined the Management Board of the International Organisation of Employers (IOE) in 2007, the same year that he became an Employer member (France) of the Governing Body of the International Labour Office. He was the Employer spokesperson in the International Labour Conference committee that drafted the ILO Declaration on Social Justice for a Fair Globalization, 2008. For a period of four years, he was the Employer spokesperson for the Programme, Financial and Administrative Committee and, laterally, Section of the Governing Body. For the past two years, he has been Vice-Chairperson of Business Europe's (BE) Social Affairs Committee. In this role, he has dealt with issues related to labour relations; corporate social responsibility (CSR), notably as Chairperson of BE's CSR Working Group, spokesperson of BE at the European multi-stakeholder forum on CSR and member of the Observatoire de la Responsabilité Sociétale des Entreprises; and social dialogue, notably as employer negotiator of the EU agreement on inclusive labour markets.

Ms Dayina Mayenga (Democratic Republic of the Congo)

Appointed Deputy Regional Director of the ILO Regional Office for Africa in Addis Ababa at the D.1 level with effect from 1 February 2014. Promotion to D.1 was reported to the Governing Body in November 2007.

Mr Mark Mongillo (United States)

Appointed Director of the Information and Technology Management Department (INFOTEC) at the D.2 level with effect from 15 August 2013. Promotion to D.1 was reported to the Governing Body in November 2011.

Ms Isabel Ortiz (Spain)

Appointed Director of the Social Protection Department (SOCPRO) at the D.2 level with effect from 1 October 2013.

Born in 1965, Ms Isabel Ortiz holds a master's degree and a PhD from the London School of Economics. She has worked in more than 30 countries worldwide, providing advisory services to governments and development institutions. She has more than 50 publications translated into several languages.

In 1991, she worked for the United Nations Economic Commission for Latin America in Buenos Aires, and then moved to the European Commission in Brussels in 1992. From 1993 to 1995, she was a researcher and lecturer in the Department of International Economics of the Spanish National Research Council and the Complutense University of Madrid, Spain. From 1995 to 2003, she held a senior official position at the Asian Development Bank, where she was a founding member of its Poverty Reduction Unit. In 2005, she became Senior Adviser in the United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs, moving to the post of Associate Director of Policy and Strategy for the United Nations International Emergency Children's Fund in 2009. Between 2012 and 2013, she was the Director of the Global Social Justice Program at Joseph Stiglitz's Initiative for Policy Dialogue, based at Columbia University, New York, United States.

Mr Drazen Petrovic (Bosnia and Herzegovina)

Appointed Registrar of the ILO Administrative Tribunal (TRIB) and promoted to D.1 level with effect from 1 December 2013.

Born in 1963, Mr Petrovic holds a PhD in International Law from the University of Geneva and two master's degrees (LL.M.), one from the European University Institute in Florence and the other from the University of Belgrade.

Mr Petrovic joined the ILO's Office of the Legal Adviser (JUR) in 2001. During the course of his career at the ILO, he served as the Representative of the Secretary-General to the Credentials Committee at International Labour Conference sessions (including its Maritime Session) between 2005 and 2008, and provided legal support to the Conference Committees on the Promotion of Cooperatives (2003–04), of the Whole on Crisis Responses (2009), on Domestic Workers (2010–11) and on the Social Protection Floor (2012). He served as the legal adviser at several ILO meetings, including the 18th International Conference of Labour Statisticians (2008) and the Ninth European Regional Meeting in Oslo (2013). In addition, he has provided legal advice to the International Training Centre of the ILO in Turin, Italy, and, since 2009, has been involved in ILO activities in relation to Myanmar. He has been a member of several internal ILO committees including the Contracts Committee and the Compensation Committee. Most recently, he held the position of Principal Legal Officer.

Prior to joining the ILO, Mr Petrovic worked for the United Nations Compensation Commission. Before moving to Switzerland, he taught and did research in international law at the University of Sarajevo in Bosnia and Herzegovina from 1987 to 1992.

Mr Peter Poschen-Eiche (Germany)

Appointed Director of the Enterprises Department (ENTERPRISES) and promoted to D.2 level with effect from 15 August 2013. Promotion to D.1 was reported to the Governing Body in March 2010.

Ms Jane Elizabeth Stewart (Canada)

Reappointed Director of the ILO Office for the United Nations in New York and Special Representative to the United Nations at the D.2 level with effect from 1 February 2014. Previous appointment to D.2 was reported to the Governing Body in November 2008.

Mr Raymond Torres (France)

Appointed Director of the Research Department, Knowledge Resource Centre (RESEARCH) at the D.2 level with effect from 1 November 2013. Promotion to D.2 was reported to the Governing Body in November 2007.
