

Reports on credentials

Brief report presented by the Chairperson of the Governing Body of the International Labour Office on the credentials of the delegates and advisers to the 103rd Session of the International Labour Conference (Geneva, 27 May 2014)

1. The composition of each delegation and the procedure for appointing delegates and advisers to sessions of the International Labour Conference are governed by article 3 of the Constitution of the International Labour Organisation.
2. In accordance with paragraphs 8 and 9 of article 3 of the Constitution, it is for the governments to communicate the nominations to the International Labour Office. The Conference examines these nominations and decides, in the case of dispute, whether delegates and advisers have been nominated in accordance with this article of the Constitution.
3. The Conference exercises this power through the Credentials Committee in accordance with the procedure laid down in articles 5 and 26 to 26 quater of its Standing Orders.
4. By virtue of paragraph 2 of article 26 of the Standing Orders of the Conference: “A brief report upon these credentials shall be drawn up by the Chairperson of the Governing Body. It shall, with the credentials, be made available for inspection on the day before the opening of the session of the Conference and shall be published on the day of the opening of the session.”
5. The present report serves to provisionally fix the quorum necessary to give validity to the votes taken, in accordance with paragraph 1(2) of article 20 of the Standing Orders of the Conference.
6. The attached table, which was established on Tuesday, 27 May 2014, at 5 p.m., shows the numerical composition of the delegations to the Conference based on the credentials provided. In this regard, it should be noted that the persons who have been nominated, both as substitute delegates and as advisers, have been included in the table among the advisers.
7. To date, 163 member States have communicated the names of the members of their delegations. Ninety-eight (three less than last year and 28 less than the year before) deposited their credentials on or before 12 May 2014, thus meeting the 15-day deadline before the date fixed for the opening of the Conference, in compliance with paragraph 1 of article 26 of the Standing Orders of the Conference. The Provisional List of Delegations, which appears on the opening day of the Conference, contains the names of the accredited participants received as of Tuesday, 27 May 2014.

8. Furthermore, while the Conference and the Credentials Committee have previously insisted on the obligation which article 3 of the Constitution imposes on governments requiring them to send complete delegations to the Conference, one member State (Kyrgyzstan) has accredited a delegation exclusively composed of Government delegates. In addition, one member State (Bolivia (Plurinational State of)) has appointed an Employers' delegate but no Workers' delegate, while another member State (Nicaragua) has appointed a Workers' delegate but no Employers' delegate.
9. Thirty-nine governments (four less than last year) have failed to confirm that they would cover their delegates' and advisers' travel and subsistence expenses, as envisaged under paragraph 2(a) of article 13 of the Constitution.
10. In order to ensure greater clarity in establishing the credentials and to expedite their entry into the Conference management system, it is advisable that governments use the form enclosed with the letter of convocation to the Conference which the Office addresses every year to member States or, preferably, the Online Credentials¹ application made available by the Office.
11. Finally, I urge all delegates and advisers to register in person at the Registration Desk located at the Pavilion, which is near the ILO building, since the daily quorum is calculated on the basis of the number of delegates actually registered.

Composition of the Conference and quorum

12. At present, 323 Government delegates, 161 Employers' delegates and 161 Workers' delegates – a total of 645 delegates – are accredited to the Conference.
13. There are, in addition, 1,187 Government advisers, 488 Employers' advisers and 692 Workers' advisers – a total of 2,367 advisers.
14. A total of 3,012 delegates and advisers have been nominated to take part in the work of the Conference in conformity with the provisions of the Constitution of the Organization.
15. Eleven member States accredited to the Conference are in arrears in their financial contributions to the Organization under the terms of article 13, paragraph 4, of the Constitution and therefore may not, at present, participate in the voting in the Conference or its committees. These are: Burundi, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Djibouti, Kyrgyzstan, Madagascar, Malawi, Papua New Guinea, Sierra Leone, Somalia, Sudan and Uzbekistan. Therefore, 42 delegates are not taken into account in calculating the quorum, nor two delegates who, in accordance with article 4, paragraph 2, of the Constitution, cannot vote owing to the incomplete nature of their delegations (Bolivia (Plurinational State of) and Nicaragua).

16. In conformity with article 17 of the Constitution of the Organization and article 20 of the Standing Orders of the Conference, the necessary quorum to give a vote validity is provisionally set at 301.²

Observers

17. At present, two observers' delegations have been accredited to the Conference (Bhutan and the Holy See).

Liberation movement and organizations invited

18. The Conference is also attended by:

- a delegation from Palestine, as a liberation movement invited in conformity with article 2, paragraph 3(k), of the Standing Orders of the Conference;
- representatives of the United Nations and some of its bodies, invited by virtue of Article II, paragraph 1 – relating to reciprocal representation – of the Agreement between the United Nations and the International Labour Organization, which came into effect on 14 December 1946;
- representatives of other official international organizations, invited in conformity with article 2, paragraph 3(b), of the Standing Orders of the Conference;
- representatives of non-governmental international organizations with which consultative relations have been established, invited in conformity with article 2, paragraph 3(j), of the Standing Orders of the Conference; and
- representatives of other non-governmental international organizations also invited in conformity with article 2, paragraph 3(j), of the Standing Orders of the Conference.

19. The representatives indicated in the above paragraph are included in the Provisional List of Delegations, published as a supplement to the Provisional Record of the Conference.

Geneva, 27 May 2014
