

Decision on the first item on the agenda: Area of critical importance: Promoting more and better jobs for inclusive growth

The Governing Body requested the Director-General to take account of its guidance, and the guidance provided in the 2014 conclusions on the recurrent discussion on employment (the conclusions concerning the second recurrent discussion on employment, adopted by the 103rd Session of the International Labour Conference (May–June 2014)), in particular the integrated approach and improved cross-departmental coordination outlined in those conclusions, in implementing the strategy for the area of critical importance (ACI) on “Promoting more and better jobs for inclusive growth”.

(Document GB.322/POL/1, paragraph 31, as amended.)