

Decision on the second item on the agenda: Agenda of the International Labour Conference

The Governing Body:

(1) adopted a strategic and coherent approach to setting the Conference agenda for the 106th (2017), 107th (2018), and 108th (2019) Sessions of the Conference;

(2) agreed that the elements contained in paragraphs 11 to 19 of document GB.322/INS/2 should be taken into account in the setting of the Conference agenda for the period 2017 to 2019;

(3) provided guidance on:

(a) the removal from its consideration of the proposal concerning building a diverse and inclusive world of work;

(b) the action to be taken regarding the proposal concerning the public sector;

(c) the temporary removal from its consideration, pending further work from the Office, of the following four subjects: resolution of labour disputes; transition of the world of work to a low-carbon economy; non-standard forms of employment; long-term unemployment;

(d) the arrangements to be made to enable constituents to submit further suggestions for the Conference agenda;

(4) postponed, to its 323rd Session (March 2015), consideration of the following three proposed items:

- effective ILO development cooperation in a changing global context (general discussion);
- violence against women and men in the world of work (standard setting, double discussion);
- labour migration (general discussion);

(5) requested the Director-General to report on the agenda of future sessions of the Conference to its 323rd Session (March 2015), and to engage in consultations to that end.

(Document GB.322/INS/2, paragraph 35, as amended according to the discussion.)
