THIRTEENTH ITEM ON THE AGENDA

Report of the Director-General

Fourth Supplementary Report: Documents submitted for information only

1. As part of the reform package adopted at its 310th Session (March 2011),¹ the Governing Body decided that documents identified as “for information only” would be published on the Governing Body website but would not be intended for discussion, unless the tripartite screening group decides otherwise at the request of a member of the Governing Body.² These documents for information include reports of the Officers of the Governing Body with decisions made under delegated authority.³
2. Further to that decision, a list of all papers presented at the current session “for information” is included at the end of the agenda of the session. Documents for information are webposted on the right-hand side of the page of the Governing Body section concerned.

Draft decision

3. The Governing Body took note of the information contained in the documents listed at the end of its agenda.
