

► Repurposing of the Project — response to the new challenges due to the Russian Federation’s aggression against Ukraine

Ukraine works! — a campaign about SLS information and consultation support to employers and workers

Almost 30,000 views of www.pratsia.in.ua since the campaign launch

Psychosocial support at the workplace in war and post-war times

200 labour inspectors, 70 representatives of the NTSEC¹ secretariat and social partners trained on PSS² and advocacy of the relevant programmes at the workplace

Helping to adapt OSH measures in hostilities

Development of the Guidelines on OSH in hostilities has been launched
8 experts of SLS, ESOSH⁴ involved

Prevention of forced labour and human trafficking among IDPs³ and those fleeing Ukraine

- Each month around 50–70 thousand passengers of inter-city trains learn about the risks of forced labour and safety rules (videos and posters displayed on main routes)
- Over 400,000 persons were reached and consulted by the labour inspectors in March–June 2022
- All labour inspectors of Moldova were trained and got leaflets to inform persons arriving from Ukraine
- The Project developed and provided informational materials to the SLS
- Employers in Moldova learned about Responsible Business Conduct (RBC) including role of business in preventing Trafficking and Forced Labour

¹ National Tripartite Social and Economic Council ² Psychosocial support ³ Internally displaced persons ⁴ European Society of OSH experts (Ukraine)

► OSH

Draft OSH law — focus on advocacy

- 5th and 6th sets of technical recommendations to the draft OSH law were advocated within NTSEC workgroup (WG)
- 1 media interview to advocate alignment with ILO and EU standards
- ILO Support Kit for Developing Occupational Safety and Health Legislation made available in Ukrainian to support the consultation process

ILO World OSH Day 2022 “Let’s act together to build positive safety and health culture”

300 participants of the national conference, access to the OSH day materials in Ukrainian

► UDW

Campaign materials were adapted to the context of hostilities — new section on labour relations under martial law on the www.dsp.gov.ua

► Labour relations

- Project recommendations to the draft law 5388 were advocated through the Parliament Committee’s tripartite WG to finalize the draft for the second reading
- Project recommendations to the draft laws No. 5054 and No.5054-1* were advocated through the social media

* Draft law on deregulation of employment relationship

On indicators of employment relationship

► Labour inspection

Legal framework

- Technical recommendations to the draft law on labour inspection were advocated at tripartite meetings and NTSEC WG on the draft OSH law
- ILO Guidelines on general principles of labour inspection were made available to the stakeholders in Ukrainian to support the legislative process
- ILO publication “Labour inspection: a guide to the profession” in Ukrainian was disseminated among stakeholders

Improving institutional communication

50 SLS specialists across Ukraine attended 4th and 5th modules of institutional communication training and 3 ad-hoc training sessions on crisis communication in wartime. The training course was licensed by the National Agency of Ukraine on Civil Service

► Informing about Project events and products

- Newsletter No. 5 for January—June 2022
- Survey for evaluation by stakeholders and beneficiaries of the Project and its results in 2021