NOTES

Disabilities: All types (seeing, hearing, speaking, moving/mobility, body movement, gripping/holding, learning, behaviour, personal care difficulties)
Term used to denote 'disability': "Longstanding health condition or disease"
Definition of this term: Persons having activity limitations in performing daily tasks, activity limitations related to the nature of activity, duration and quality of the task. Long-standing health problems refer to health problems, which have been present or are expected to last for 6 months or more.
Source of this definition: Commission Regulation (EC) N° 317/2010
Questions used to identify persons with disabilities: "Do you have any of the following types of longstanding health conditions or diseases?" (the list is given in the questionnaire). "Do you have difficulties with any of the following basic activities: seeing, even if wearing glasses; hearing, even if using hearing aid; walking, climbing steps; sitting or standing; remembering, concentrating; communicating, for example understanding or being understood by others; reaching or stretching; lifting and carrying; bending; holding, gripping or turning; only one difficulty?" Possible answers: yes, no.

"Does your health condition/disease or activity difficulty limit: the number of hours that you can work in a week; the type of work that you can do; in getting to and from work?" Possible answers: yes, no, no condition/disease or activity difficulty.

"Is the limitation in the number of hours that you can work in a week is caused by: the health condition(s)/disease(s), the activity difficulty(ies)?" Possible answers: yes, no, both.

"Because of your health condition/disease or activity difficulty would you need: any personal assistance to enable you to work; special equipment or workplace adaptations to enable you to work; any special work arrangements?" "Is there any other reasons apart from any health condition/disease or activity difficulty that restricts the work you can do?"

"What is the main reason that you are restricted in the work you can do: lack of qualifications/experience; lack of appropriate job opportunities; lack of or poor transportation to and from workplace; employers' lack of flexibility; affects receipt of benefits; family/caring responsibilities; personal reasons; other reason?" Possible answers: yes, no.
