

Day 1 – Tuesday 24 February 2015
08.00-09.00	Registration
09.00-10.30	Opening of the country level consultation for the 2015 Integration Segment Moderator: Michele Zaccheo, UNIC <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tomoko Nishimoto ILO Regional Director • Douglas Broderick, UN Resident Coordinator of Indonesia • Sulistri, Secretary General of the Confederation of Indonesian Prosperity Trade Union (K-SBSI) • Hariyadi Sukamdani, Chairman of DPN APINDO • Ambassador Vladimir Drobnjak, Vice President of ECOSOC via video message • Reyna Usman, Director General for Employment Placement of the Minister of Manpower
10.30-10.50	Morning tea
10.50-12.00	Opening plenary: The ‘Big Think’ on jobs, growth and sustainable development This opening session will provide an overview of the transitions that are currently taking place in the Indonesian economy. It will discuss the next steps in the economic transformation of the Indonesian economy, with particular focus on strategies to support formalisation and expanding decent work. It will discuss new thinking on an effective framework that supports sustainable, inclusive and balanced growth with full employment and decent work as a core macroeconomic policy objective. Speakers will discuss ways to boost economic growth in a sustainable way. Moderator: Emma Allen, ILO <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sukti Dasgupta, ILO Senior Economist • Razali Ritonga, Director of Population and Employment Statistics of the National Bureau of Statistics of Indonesia • Roostiawati, Head of Center for Administration of International Cooperation of the Ministry of Manpower • Rahma Iryanti, Deputy Minister for Poverty, Labour and SMEs of the Ministry of State for National Development Planning / National Development Planning Agency (BAPPENAS)
12.00-13.00	Lunch
13.00-15.00	Mind the gap: Economic and social limits to income inequality Despite robust economic growth and declining poverty, income inequality continues to expand. This session will discuss the social and political consequences of widening income inequality and policies to contain a further widening of income differentials. This will include a focus on wage policy (including collective bargaining and minimum wages), tax policy, and social protection floors. Moderator: Robert Kyloh, ILO <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Malte Luebker, ILO Regional wages specialist • Chris Manning, Adjunct Professor of Australian National University • Ninasapti Triaswati, Committee of National Economy of Indonesia • Zulfan Tadjoeuddin, Senior Lecturer in Development Studies of University of Western Sydney • Bambang Suharnoko Sjahrir, Economist at The World Bank

15.00-15.20	Afternoon tea
15.20-17.00	Voices from the Real Economy This session will provide an opportunity for business organizations, trade unions, other stakeholders from the economy to verify how the policies from national, provincial and district governments are being implemented and discuss how they have managed to tackle challenges of job creation and rights at work. The session will focus on policy is converted into practice within the real economy Moderator: Soeharyono, ILO <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Harijanto, Deputy Chairman of Employment, DPN APINDO • Soeprayitno, DPP APINDO DKI Jakarta • Dahlan Sulaiman, DPP APINDO Aceh • Muhammad Rusdi, General Secretary of Confederation of Indonesian Trade Unions (KSPI) • Andi Gani Nena Wea, President of Confederation of All Indonesian Trade Union (KSPSI-Congress Jakarta) • Syukur Sarto, Chairman of Confederation of All Indonesian Trade Union (KSPSI) • Eduard Marpaung, General Secretary of KSBSI
17.00-17.30	Feedback session – Wrap-up of the day by Robert Kylvoh (ILO)
Day 2 – Wednesday 25 February 2015
09.00-10.30	Sustainable development through green economy and green jobs This session will discuss how the promotion of environmental sustainability can be turned into opportunities for decent job creation. This session will focus on plantations and fisheries. Moderator: Johan Kieft, UNORCID <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lorraine Villacorta, ILO Environment and Decent Work Specialist • Anang Noegroho, Executive Director of Ministry for Marine Affairs and Fisheries • Shinta Wijaya Kamdani, Deputy Chairman of International Relations of DPN APINDO Theme: green jobs, green economy and renewable energy <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Verania Andria, Program Manager for Sustainable Energy Environment Unit at UNDP Theme: GDP of the Poor and Green GDP approach – UNDP’s lessons learned from Central Kalimantan <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Romain Pirard, CIFOR Senior Scientist Theme: challenges related to labour and the planned expansion of industrial tree plantations across the tropics
10.30-10.50	Morning tea
10.50-12.00	Promoting decent work in provinces - breakout sessions
	Initiatives to accelerate regional growth: Skills and productivity This session will focus on building innovation and competitiveness through targeted interventions, particularly in the areas of entrepreneurship, apprenticeships and skills development. The session will	Closing the gap on rural development by growing the green economy Policy responses are needed to support inclusive growth outcomes rural areas. In particular, rural areas need strategies to improve productivity and incomes in both agricultural and non-agricultural activities.

	highlight practical solutions for addressing multiple development challenges by investing in skills and productivity, with emphasis on close collaboration with the private sector. Moderator: Ali Irham Saifuddin, ILO <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Laura Brewer, ILO Skills specialist • Mustaghfirin Amin, Director of SMK of the Ministry of Education Theme: Education and its agenda on supporting skills development • Syamsul Arifin, National Center for Employment Creation and Expansion (BBPPK), Lembang Theme: Business incubation and skills development for employment creation • Estiarty Haryani, Director of Productivity and Entrepreneurship of the Ministry of Manpower Theme: The Government Productivity Program • Payaman Simanjuntak, Vice Head of National Productivity Council Theme: Current situation in Indonesia on productivity program 	Investments rural access, economic diversification through growing the green economy, the organization of farmers and other rural workers, and the extension of social protection will be crucial herein. Moderator: Nagasaki Paranginangin, ILO <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Erna Novianti, Director of Employment Creation and Informal Economy Development of the Ministry of Manpower to open and provide general overview the session. • Ihsan Basir, Head of Skills Training and Employment Placement, Provincial Department of Manpower in Central Sulawesi Theme: the success story of a Padat Karya Program synergy (infrastructure, productivity, appropriate technology, independent workers, and volunteer workers) in regards to the policy in supporting the inclusive growth outcomes in rural areas in Central Sulawesi • Gatot Hermawan, Head of District Department of Manpower in Wonosobo Theme: the success story of a synergy between IP3 LRB Bridges construction demonstration and other Padat Karya programs • H. Masrun Hasan Basri, Head of District Department of Manpower in Central Lombok Theme: success story in involving faith-based organizations as leaders in employment creation program through Padat Karya Program activities (infrastructure, productivity, appropriate technology, independent workers, and volunteer workers) in Central Lombok District and how it relates to the policy in supporting the inclusive growth outcomes in rural areas.
--	---	--

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Asep Samsul Mustopa, Organic farming entrepreneur in Bandung Theme: organic farming as an alternative for green economy development
12.00-13.00	Lunch
13.00-15.00	Promoting jobs, protecting people - breakout sessions
	Pension for a just transition As part of its sustained efforts to close the gap in the social protection floor, Indonesia will implement a new public pension scheme In July 2015. This session will give the floor to stakeholders to discuss about the upcoming scheme, its sustainability issue and implications for workers, employers and government. Moderator: Ratnawati Muyanto, ILO <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hiroshi Yamabana, ILO Social security specialist Theme: the key parameters to consider when designing a public pension scheme: case of Indonesia • Bambang Purwoko, National Social Security Council (DJSN) Theme: The upcoming public pension scheme: what it will look like? • Wahyu Widodo, Director of Labour Social Security and Wages of the Ministry of Manpower Theme: The upcoming pension plan and its implication for the labour market in Indonesia 	Decent work for Indonesian migrant workers Migrant workers have the opportunity for promoting jobs creation, but there is still a need for protection for workers working abroad. The session will discuss strategies for strengthening protection and upgrading skills for migrant workers in order to support access to decent work for migrant workers. Moderator: Emma Allen, ILO <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Albert Y. Bonasahat, ILO Project Officer for Migrant Workers • Jun Kuncoro, Deputy of Protection for Indonesian Citizens and Legal Entities of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs Theme: foreign diplomatic policy and international cooperation by MoFA and the new administration in regards to protection of Indonesian workers who are working as migrant workers, specifically domestic workers, and those working in fisheries and maritime industries. • Sulistri, Secretary General of the Confederation of Indonesian Prosperity Trade Union (K-SBSI) Theme: the voice inputs as a the representation of workers' organizations on decent work for Indonesia's migrant workers, esp. domestic workers, and those working in fisheries and maritime sectors in ASEAN

15.00-15.20	Afternoon tea
15.20-17.00	Wanted: Decent work for sustainable development This session will bring together policy makers to discuss how the challenge of creating decent jobs in the next decade can be achieved while also promoting environmental sustainability. The session will summarize and reflect upon the perspectives shared over the last two days. It will highlight key points to be shared from Indonesia in the global meeting. Moderator: Johan Kieft, UNORCID <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Robert Kyloh, ILO Senior Economist for Multilateral Cooperation • Roostiawati, Head of Center for Administration of International Cooperation of the Ministry of Manpower • Agung Pambudhi, Executive Director of DPN APINDO • Sahat Butarbutar, Vice General Secretary of Confederation of Indonesian Trade Unions (KSPI)
Close of event	