TERMS OF REFERENCE
Production of Communications Materials

I. Background

The International Labor Organization (ILO) is implementing a project on Improving Workers Rights in the Rural Sector of the Indo-Pacific, with a Focus on Women. The project focuses in three sectors – agriculture, fishing, and mining, and aims to contribute to sustained improved working conditions, especially for women workers, through the improvement and promotion of labor laws compliance in the rural sectors in the Philippines and Indonesia. The Project has two main components – the first one on Governance focuses on strengthening social dialogue in sectoral Industry Tripartite Councils (ITCs) on the promotion of labour standards compliance, ensuring alignment of the Philippines’ law and practice with the ILO’s Promotional Framework on OSH Convention (No.187), and strengthening of labour standards enforcement and remediation mechanisms. The second component of the Project is on Industry Engagement, focusing on building the capacity of its partner employer and workers’ organizations to promote labour standards compliance within supply chains, at the enterprise levels and communities where they source from.

As the project progresses, there is a need for visually compelling materials to effectively communicate its objectives, initiatives, and results. This TOR outlines the requirements to produce communications materials under the Rural Sectors Project.

II. Services Required and Expected Outputs (Scope of Work)

The Contractor is expected to produce the following deliverables in both English and Filipino, for printing and dissemination in social media:

Expected Outputs:

- Executive Brief (Magazine-like format): A magazine-style brief, not longer than 6 pages, that delves into the project’s initiatives and positive results, highlighting good practices and partners’ contribution;

- Baseline Executive Summary and Sectoral Summary: A brief overall executive summary (4 pages) and three sector-specific summaries (2 pages each) based on the Project’s Baseline Study and Sectoral Assessments;

- Work Improvement in the Fishing Industry (WIFI) Guide: A 40-page guide for micro and small enterprises for assessing hazards and risks in the workplace and community levels, and developing plans for sustained action on immediate, practical improvements;

- Editable Over-all Project Presentation Template: A presentation template, with design based on inputs and purpose/s determined by the Project Team;

- OSH Flyers: At least 3 OSH back-to-back flyers focusing on chemical, physical, and electrical hazards in the Project’s target sectors (Banana, Fishing, and Mining) and how to address these; and,

- OSH Roll-up Banners: Produce roll-up designs that follow the ILO format and branding.

The ILO must have all rights to all versions of the materials developed. All images and designs become the property of the ILO and all rights shall be vested in the International Labour Organization including, without any limitation, the rights to use, publish (including the Web), or distribute the materials, privately or publicly.
Indicative Tasks of the Contractor:

In matters of design:
- Follow the ILO Branding Guidelines in all designs, which can be accessed via [Brand Hub - Guidelines (ilo.org)];
- Develop design concepts for the Executive Brief, the Executive Summary and Sectoral Summaries of the Baseline Study, Work Improvement in the Fishing Industry Guide, Presentation Template, OSH flyers and roll ups, that align with the project’s objectives and target audience;
- Source relevant images or graphics for the deliverables, if needed based on a review of photos which the Project has previously gathered. Edit and retouch previously gathered images to fit the design requirements;
- Keep abreast of the latest design trends and tools, ensuring the project’s materials are modern and engaging; and,
- Ensure consistency and high visual appeal of produced materials.

In matters of formatting:
- Prepare final design files for printing, ensuring they meet the required specifications. Coordinate with printers or vendors for production.
- Adapt the designs for digital platforms, such as social media, email newsletters, and the project website; and,
- Produce materials in English and Filipino.

In matters of work relation and feedbacking:
- Work closely with the Project team to ensure that the design complements the content and effectively communicates the intended message;
- Present design concepts and final designs to the project team, explaining design choices and gathering feedback; and,
- Incorporate feedback from the project team and stakeholders, making necessary revisions to the designs.

The contractor shall organize and archive design files in a hard drive, ensuring they are editable by Project staff, and are easily accessible for future reference or modifications.

Role of the ILO/ Project Team

- Provide the contractor with English and Filipino versions of the Executive Summary and Sectoral Summaries of the Baseline Study, Work Improvement in the Fishing Industry Guide, content for OSH flyers and roll-ups;
- Provide the contractor with relevant ILO materials and guidelines which can be useful for the development of content for the Project Executive Brief; and,
- Support the contractor in gathering input/feedback from the ILO and Project stakeholders.
