

International
Labour
Organization

“Towards Fair and Sustainable Global Supply Chains: Promoting Decent Work for Invisible Workers in Nepal”

National Capacity Building and Planning Workshop for CTUs and member based institutions engaged in home based work
October 2 - 3, 2018, Hotel Himalaya, Kathmandu, Nepal

AGENDA

Time	Details
2 Oct 2018
9:00-9:15	Registration for first day
9:15 - 10:30 AM	Inaugural Session: Context setting and situational analysis Opening remarks: - Richard Howard, Director ILO Nepal Development paradigms and labour market inequalities - Bharti Birla, Project Manager – Sustainable Global Supply Chains, ILO DWT for South Asia and CO for India Women in home based work - Aya Matsuura, Gender Specialist, ILO DWT for SA and CO for India Challenges for promoting decent work for home-based workers in Nepal - Usha Bhandari, Nepal Home Based Workers Union Facilitation: Prakash Sharma, Programme Officer, ILO Nepal
10:30- 11:15	Technical Session – I Understanding key concepts and C177 -Aya
11:15-12:00	Technical Session – II Understanding labour rights and key decent work deficits for workers in the lower tiers of the global supply chain -Bharti Birla
12:00–13:00	Technical Session – III Home-based workers – Laws, rights and challenges/gaps of implementation in Nepal - Presentation by Ms Prabha Pokhrel, Resource Person and expert on home based workers Comments and remarks from Panel – a) General Federation of Nepalese Trade Unions b) All Nepal Federation of Trade Unions c) Nepal Trade Union Congress
13:00-14:00	Lunch break

14:00-15:30	Journey of Trade Unions and CBOs on the issue of home based workers and possible future <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Vision and Future goals - Timeline, strategy, action and results Sharing of the journey and goals Facilitated by: Bharti Birla
15:30-15:45	Tea break
15:45-17:00	Key issues for advocacy and action Group work (Problem and Objective Tree analysis, stakeholder mapping, and resource and capacity needs) (mixed groups of TUs and CSOs) Facilitation: Bharti Birla Presentation of group work Facilitation: Prakash/Saurabh
17:00-17:30	Summing up and closing of Day 1 Group Photo
3 October 2018
9:00-9:15	Registration for second day
9:15-9:30	Welcome session and feedback/questions related to Day 1/Expectations for Day 2 -Agenda for the day
9:30-11:30	Strategies that work, learnings, and better practices for advocacy - World Café format Based Group Discussion Open discussion Facilitation: Aya Matsuura
11:30-11:45	Tea Break
11:45-13:00	Formulating the big picture for National and Province level advocacy <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Joint Action - Key agenda Facilitation: Bharti Birla
13:00-14:00	Lunch
14:00-15:30	Formulation of medium-term action plan (Group work – respective organizations) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Organizational level - Joint Action Report back Facilitation: Saurabh
15:30-15:45	Tea Break
15:45-16:00	Summing up of group points and ideas into a common agenda for follow up Prakash/Saurabh
16:00–16:30	Closing Remarks from TU and CBO representatives Closing Remarks - Aya Matsuura, Bharti Birla Closing of session - Richard Howard, Director ILO Nepal Facilitation: Saurabh Shah Photo session