

Workshop on Strengthening Capacity and Coordination on Prevention and Investigation of Trafficking in Persons for Forced Labour

27-28 May 2019, Luang Prabang Province, Lao PDR

Programme (Tentative)

Day 1:	Activity
8:30-9:00	Registration	Person in charge
9:00-9:30	Opening Remarks <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Chairperson, Ministry of Labour and Social Welfare, Lao PDR - Co-Chair, Ministry of Labour, Thailand / ACMW Chair - Australian Mission to ASEAN (TBD) 	MOLSW
9:30-10:00	Session 1: Scene-setter and background <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Nexus between labour violations and trafficking in persons: “Continuum of exploitation” - Recap of Manila workshop outcomes 	Chair & Co-chair Anna Olsen, ILO Mr Bernardo P. Olalia, POEA, Philippines [tbc]
10:00-10:15	Q & A	Participants
10:15-10:30	Coffee Break
10:30-11:45	Session 2: Nexus between labour violation and trafficking in persons <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - What is human trafficking? Definitions and standards - What is forced labour? How does it relate to labour violations? Definitions and standards - Case studies: Group work 	Moderator by ACWC Chair (TBD) Manichanh Keoviriyavong, ASEAN-ACT Marja Paavilainen, ILO
11:45-12:00	Q & A	Participants
12:00-13:30	Lunch
13:30-14.45	Session 3: Anti-trafficking law and labour law in migrant workers’ access to justice <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Case studies: Group presentations and plenary discussion - Anti-trafficking law and labour law processes in migrant workers’ access to justice: Case examples 	Moderator by ASLOM Chair (TBD) Marja Paavilainen, ILO [tbc], Tenaganita, Malaysia Papop Siamhan, Human Rights and Development Foundation (HRDF), Thailand
14:45-15:00	Q & A	Participants

15:00-15:15	Coffee Break
15:15-16:30	Session 4: Complementary roles of labour inspectors and trafficking police <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Role, mandate, evidence and investigative techniques of labour inspectors - Role, mandate, evidence and investigative techniques of trafficking police - Developing red flags checklists for labour inspectors and trafficking police 	Moderator by AICHR Chair (TBD) Kristina Kurths, ILO Police Colonel Gemma C. Vinluan, Philippine National Police Anna Olsen, ILO
16:30-16:45	Q & A
16:45-17:00	Wrap up day 1
Day 2	Activity
9:00-10:0	Session 5. Good practice examples on collaboration between labour inspectors and police <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Manual on Identification, Support and Referral of Potential Victims of Labour Trafficking in Viet Nam - Guidelines and Questionnaire on the Identification of Victims of Human Trafficking in the Fishing Industry in Indonesia - Malaysian experiences in labour inspection and anti-trafficking 	Moderator by SOMSWD Chair (TBD) Tran Van Ha, DOLAB, MOLISA, Viet Nam Yunus Husein, Task Force 115, Ministry of Marine Affairs and Fisheries, Indonesia Rhymie Mohd Ramli, ATIP Unit, Department of Labour Peninsular Malaysia
10:00-10:15	Q & A	Participants
10:15-10:30	Coffee Break
10:30-11.45	Session 6: Way forward on improving cooperation between labour inspectors and trafficking police in ASEAN <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Group work (country groups): Identifying opportunities for collaboration between labour inspectors and trafficking police? Challenges? Next step? - Plenary presentation & discussion 	Moderator/facilitator by ILO and ASEAN-ACT
11:45-12:00	Q & A
12:00-13:30	Lunch (Drafting committee meeting)
13:30-15:00	Session 7: Way forward on improving cooperation between labour inspectors and trafficking police in ASEAN <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Drafting of ASEAN recommendations on improving 	Chair & Co-chair ASEC

	cooperation between labour inspectors and trafficking police
15:00-15:15	Closing remarks	MOLSW
15:15-15:30	Coffee break	