

Global Online Access to Legal Information

6 March 2018

14:00 Geneva time

ILO Library, R2- South

Launch of GOALI, the new programme under Research4Life in the presence of key stakeholders, invited guests and media.

1. Address by ILO Deputy Director-General Deborah Greenfield on access to legal information for social justice and supporting SDGs
2. Research4Life and Publishers' commitment to providing content to developing countries – Richard Gedy, STM; Liesbeth Kanis, Brill Publishers
3. Greetings from the Chair of the Research4Life Executive Council: Daniel Dollar, Associate University Librarian at Yale University Library; and, Contributions of the GOALI team at the Lillian Goldman Law Library, Yale Law School: Teresa Miguel-Stearns, Law Librarian and Professor of Law, accompanied by the GOALI team of law librarians. (video)
4. Providing instructional and training support to legal researchers in GOALI eligible countries - Femi Cadmus, Edward Cornell Law Librarian, Associate Dean and Professor of the Practice, Cornell Law School
5. Challenges faced by legal researchers in low-income countries – Dr Susan Isiko Štrba, Senior Research Fellow, University of the Witwatersrand
6. Research4Life in practice - Dr Lilian Gondeni Chikwava, Masters student in occupational safety and health, ITCILO

Moderator: Richelle Van Snellenberg, ILO Library, GOALI Programme Manager