A safe and healthy working environment is now a fundamental principle and right at work

Information Session
Monday 11 July 2022, 14:30 – 16:00 CET (Central Europe Time)

14:30 Opening statements
- Martha Elizabeth Newton, Deputy Director-General for Policy, ILO
- Owen Tudor, Deputy Secretary-General at International Trade Union Confederation (ITUC)
- Matthias Thorns, Deputy Secretary-General at International Organisation of Employers (IOE)

14:45 The International Labour Conference Resolution – Opportunities for the world of work
- Vera Paquete-Perdigao, Governance Department Director, ILO

14:50 Safe and healthy working environments – What is required to respect, promote, and advance the new fundamental principle and right at work, and how the ILO can support Members
- Joaquim Pintado Nunes, Labadmin/OSH Branch Chief, ILO

15:00 The progressive realization of a national occupational safety and health system in practice – Requirements and process
- Manal Azzi, OSH Team Lead, ILO

15:10 Immediate implications for Member States – Reporting obligations and moving towards ratification
- Erica Martin, Labour Law & International Labour Standards Specialist, ILO

15:20 Q&A

15:45 Closing