

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY 2013

Stop Violence at Work — Panel discussion

8 March 2013, 11:30 – 13:00, ILO Building, Governing Body Room (R3 South)

BIOGRAPHIES OF PANELLISTS

Dr Charlotte Harland Scott

Dr Charlotte Harland Scott is an economic and social development policy expert with over twenty years experience working for major NGOs, donor agencies and the United Nations in Africa. She is the former Chief of Social Policy and Economic Analysis, Planning Monitoring and Evaluation at UNICEF Zambia, responsible for extending evidence-based advocacy into national economic policy debates and influencing cooperating partner responses. She is currently a Visiting Fellow of the Institute of Development Studies (IDS) at the University of Sussex, UK. Prior to that she was a team leader for the design and implementation of the Zambian Public Welfare Assistance Scheme, a forerunner in the development of social protection in Africa, and widely replicated internationally as a means of targeting social cash transfers. She has attended Oxford, Reading and Maastricht Universities, and has a PhD from Bath University.

Ms Sarah Fox

Sarah Fox is Legal Counsel to the AFL-CIO and serves as a Worker Member of the ILO Governing Body and of its Committee on Freedom of Association. She is a former member of the U.S. National Labor Relations Board, appointed by President Bill Clinton and also served as Chief Labor Counsel to the U.S. Senate Committee on Labor and Human Resources, on the staff of Senator Edward Kennedy, and as counsel to the Bricklayers and Allied Craftworkers Union. She is a graduate of Yale University and Harvard Law School.

Ms Brenda Cuthbert

Brenda Cuthbert is the Chief Executive Officer of Jamaica Employers' Federation. She holds a Bachelor Degree with Honours in Agriculture and Post Graduate Diploma in Agri-Business Management and Finance. Additionally she has a Master Degree in Business Administration and is a Doctoral Candidate in the DBA Programme at University of the West Indies. Her work experience in agriculture, cooperatives, research, management and finance has allowed her to fully utilize her training, and to contribute to the development of her island home Jamaica.