

Getting involved.

Partnership

Open to Employer and Business Membership Organizations (EBMO) and other business-led initiatives with complementary mandates and expertise wanting to support the initiative. Partnership terms are for 12 months with subsequent years subject to appraisal.

Entry requirements—12 month partnership

Expression of interest	Specific commitment of in-kind support to the Global Business Network.	An expression of support from an existing member of the Global Business Network or an apex Employers Organization is preferred.
------------------------	--	---

PARTNERSHIP BENEFITS

1. Receive support to navigate the complex landscape of actors, mechanisms, and resources to tackle forced labour and human trafficking across different regulatory landscapes and supply chains;
2. Access to a growing suite of knowledge products and tools on effective models for human rights' due diligence, collaboration and work with SMEs in supply chains;
3. Opportunities to co-host events and produce co-branded resources and knowledge products;
4. Opportunities to participate in sectoral and issue-based meetings convened by the Global Business Network and its Members;
5. Opportunities for direct partnership with ILO through technical work to deliver solutions on the ground;
6. Receive access to regular updates, briefings and insights shared by the Global Business Network;
7. On boarding services including a 30 minute call with new partners to orient them to the activities of the Global Business Network and the ILOs broader work on these issues;
8. Eligibility to join Working Groups for the opportunity to provide technical and strategic inputs on the work being pursued.

OTHER WAYS TO COLLABORATE— JOIN THE ALLIANCE 8.7

Alliance 8.7 brings together actors at all levels – governments, UN agencies, NGOs, civil society, academic institutions, the media and the private sector – to accelerate progress towards Target 8.7 by aligning diverse actors and supporting the coordination of innovative strategies and sharing of knowledge. Alliance 8.7 is the official global initiative supporting progress towards Target 8.7 at all levels and contributes to related Targets 5.2, 16.2, 16.3 and 16.a.

Becoming a partner of Alliance 8.7 is free and open to organisations and countries who are:

- Actively implementing programs contributing towards Target 8.7 and/or with a mandate to contribute towards Target 8.7; and
- Committed to achieving Target 8.7 and upholding applicable international standards, including international labour standards.

For more information about the Alliance and the benefits of being directly involved, visit www.alliance87.org

For more information

The ILO serves as the secretariat for the Global Business Network on Forced Labour and facilitates its activities. Any enquiries can be directed to fl-businessnetwork@ilo.org