

Global Dialogue Forum for the Promotion of the Work
in Fishing Convention, 2007 (No. 188)Geneva
15–17 May 2013

---

Note for the participants

The Global Dialogue Forum for the Promotion of the Work in Fishing Convention, 2007 (No. 188) will be held at the International Labour Office, in Geneva, from 15-17 May 2013. The opening plenary sitting, which will be held in Room II (R3 South) of the ILO building, will begin at 11:30 a.m.

The purpose of this Note is to assist participants in the Forum to familiarize themselves with the organization and procedures of the Forum so as to enable them to take an effective part, from the outset, in its work.

Purpose of the Forum

The purpose of the Forum will be to discuss challenges in the Convention No. 188's implementation, to evaluate how it can be used as a tool to address major issues in the sector, to share good practices and experiences, to report and review promotional activities, and to provide an update on the status of national efforts to implement and ratify Convention No. 188.

The Issues paper prepared by the Office (GDFWF/2013), which has been issued in English, French and Spanish, will serve as the basis for the Forum's work. Print copies will be available at the ILO in Geneva.

Composition of the Forum

The Forum will be composed of six Employer participants nominated by the Employers' group and six Worker participants nominated by the Workers' group of the Governing Body. All Governments have been invited to attend the Global Dialogue Forum at their own costs.

In addition, representatives of certain intergovernmental organizations, and certain international non-governmental organizations have been invited to attend the Forum as observers.

Working of the groups

Arrangements have been made for the Government, Employers and Workers representatives to hold separate consultation meetings in the course of the Forum.

Arrangements have been made for official meetings of the groups on the opening day of the Meeting (15 May):

9.00–11.00:	Government group	Room II
	Employers' group	Room III
	Workers' group	Room IV

Introductory sessions

Government participants are invited to an introductory session at 9.00 a.m. on 15 May in Room II.

Representatives of intergovernmental organizations and international non-governmental organizations are invited to an introductory session at 10.00 a.m. on 15 May in Room V.

The participants will be informed about the Global Dialogue Forum, its draft programme over the three days' duration, and the roles of participants.

Documents

In order to enable participants to fully participate in the work of the Forum, the following documents will be issued in English, French and Spanish:

- (a) the Issues paper (GDFWF/2013);
- (b) the draft suggested points for discussion (GDFWF/2013/5);
- (c) a Daily bulletin; and
- (d) the list of participants (provisional, GDFWF/2013/2).

Participants are strongly advised to pick up the Daily bulletin when they first arrive each day before going to the various meetings.

In the weeks following the Forum, the Office will send to all participants a brief report of the discussion of the Forum for comments.

Information sessions

During the Forum, information sessions on topics related to the fishing sector may take place during the lunch break from 13.30 – 14.30 in the plenary meeting room (Room II). The information sessions are open to all participants and will be held only in English.

Miscellaneous information

Transport to the ILO building

Participants coming by private car are asked to use car park P1. Please do not park in front of the main entrance.

Public transport services link the railway station (Cornavin) (lines F and 8) and the airport (line 28) to the ILO building. The stop for the ILO is marked “BIT” and is located on Avenue Appia. From 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. the “8” bus runs every six to eight minutes and every 15 to 20 minutes there-after; from 7 a.m. to 8.00 p.m. the “28” bus runs every 20–30 minutes and less frequently there-after; the “F” bus runs every 15-20 minutes during rush hour and hourly after 8 p.m. Bus tickets valid for several journeys are on sale at the news agent inside the ILO building on the R2 level (south).

Arrival at the ILO building

Participants arriving by car should follow the signs to the visitors’ parking P1 and from there, the signs indicating “Door 1”. Participants arriving by taxi should request the taxi to deposit them to Door 1 of the ILO, while participants arriving by bus should follow the signs from the bus stop to the ILO and follow the signs to Door 1 (situated in R3 South) (see map in Appendix II) .

At the security desk, participants will be welcomed by a staff member of the Secretariat, who will provide them with a visitor’s badge. This unmarked visitors’ badge contains a microchip and allows you to access and exit the building throughout the duration of the Forum.

Upon their departure, participants are kindly requested to drop their unmarked visitors’ badges in a designated badge return box placed after the gates, so they can be reused.

Once having entered, participants are asked to direct themselves to the Forum registration desk at level R3 on the South side of the building.

Coat racks are placed at various points in the building, including near the meetings rooms. The coat racks are not guarded and property is left at the owner’s risk.

Registration

Participants will find registration forms at the Registration and Information Desk. Every participant, whether expert, adviser, or observer, is requested to complete a registration form carefully, in block capitals, and to hand it in at the Registration and Information Desk on R-3 immediately on the first day of the Forum, in order that he/she may be officially registered.

The Registration and Information Desk will be open during the following times:

15 May: 8.30 – 14.30 and 17.30 – 18.30

16 May: 8.30 – 14.30 and 18.00 – 19.00

17 May: 8.30 – 14.30 and 17.00 – 18.00

Each participant will be issued with a badge bearing his/her name. Participants are requested to wear this badge whenever they are in the ILO building.

Meeting rooms

The times and places of the meetings to be held each day will be shown on the notice board outside the Governing Body Room and in the Daily bulletin.

The plenary sittings will be held in Room II, where seats are reserved in three separate blocks for Government, Employer and Worker representatives.

Participants will be given the opportunity to engage in a discussion. All of these statements are made from the speakers' places. It is essential that speakers should speak into a microphone to permit simultaneous interpretation of their remarks. When a participant has been authorized by the Chairperson to speak, he/she should press the button on the microphone to ensure that it is switched on.

The meeting rooms are equipped with a simultaneous interpretation apparatus, by means of which statements can be heard in the original or in an interpretation into one or another of the languages. The apparatus consists of an earphone, two push buttons for regulating volume and two push buttons for selecting a number corresponding to a particular channel.

Secretariat offices

A list of members of the secretariat, with their office numbers, will be issued as document GDFWF/2013/4.

Travel agency

A branch of Carlson Wagonlit Travel is located on the R2 level (south). It is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday to Friday. In order to avoid any problems with their return journey, participants who have not yet confirmed their reservations should contact the travel agency without delay.

Financial matters

Delegates, who are entitled to receive reimbursement of travel and payment of subsistence allowances by the ILO, will be given instructions about these payments at the registration desk.

Bank

A branch of the UBS is located at the north end of the building (R3 level), together with cash dispensers that accept Euro cards. Other cash dispensers (ATMs) are located on the R2 level near the newsagent. The bank is open from 9 a.m. to 12.30 p.m., Monday to Friday for cash withdraws and currency exchange.

Postal and telephone services

There is a post office on the R2 level at the north end of the building near the restaurant. It is open from 10 a.m. to 11.30 a.m. and from 12.30 p.m. to 4.30 p.m., Monday to Friday. There are public telephone booths and letter boxes outside both the post office and the newsagent on the R2 level.

Long-distance or international calls can be made from the telephone booths near the post office. Local calls can be made from any telephone in the ILO building, including the meeting rooms, by first dialling 0 to get an outside line.

Restaurants and bar

A restaurant, a self-service cafeteria and a snack bar are located on the R2 level at the north end of the building. There is a Delegates' bar (R3 South) in the meeting area that is open while meetings are in progress.

Smoking

The ILO is a smoke-free environment. For this reason, smoking is not permitted indoors. Participants can, however, smoke outdoors on the balcony next to the Delegates' Bar on R3 South and outdoors on the terrace located on R1 North.

First aid

Where needed, participants may contact the Medical Service on the fifth floor (Tel. 7134).

Mailing address for participants

Mail to the participants should be addressed to them in accordance with the following model:
