

African Regional Labour Administration Centre

Improving Labour Administration, Labour Legislation and labour Inspection in the Informal Economy

Outline of Presentation

- ❑ Introduction and overview
- ❑ Case Study on Labour and OSH Inspection in the Forestry Sector
- ❑ Partnership approaches supported by Policy, legislation and enforcement in the IE
- ❑ Deliberate and proactive sectoral interventions with examples from Africa
- ❑ Inter and Intra regional approaches through protocols
- ❑ Lessons learnt

- ❑ Case study scenarios drawn from East Africa, Kenya
- ❑ Examples from Southern Africa
- ❑ Approaches that balance employment creation and sustainability with the promotion of basic labour and OSH initiatives
- ❑ Working with others in alliances and partnerships
- ❑ The need for effective labour market institutions and processes to improve decent work
- ❑ Proactive interventions in labour and OSH

Labour and OSH Inspection In the IE

- ❑ Forestry Sector in a rural District in Kenya
- ❑ Prompted by complaints and increased claims for Workmens Compensation
- ❑ Carrot and stick approach
- ❑ Public-private partnerships – Social partners and others
- ❑ Consultations with employers and workers
- ❑ Using the bigger employers to influence the smaller ones
- ❑ A combination Education, training, awareness raising, advocacy for good practices
- ❑ Lessons and way forward

Thank You

Sammy T. Nyambari (PhD)

Executive Director

African Regional Labour Administration Centre

arlac@arlac.org.zw

nyambari@arlac.org.zw

www.arlac.org.zw

