

HUMAN TRAFFICKING A COMPLEX REALITY

Foto Lars Engelgaard

Program

Conference in 'DGI-byen', Copenhagen, Denmark, Wednesday April 14, 2010.

Arranged by the Danish Centre against Human Trafficking

- 9.00 Arrival and check in, coffee/tea and breakfast
- 10.00 Welcome
- 10.05 Official Conference Opening by the Department of Gender Equality, Kira Appel
- 10.15 Presentation of the Danish Centre against Human Trafficking by the organization coordinator, Gitte Tilia
- 10.20 'What is trafficking all about?'
Introduction by Hanne Mainz and Trine Mygind Korsby, Danish Centre against Human Trafficking
- 10.30 'Inside the business of modern slavery' by Siddharth Kara
- 11.15 Break
- 11.30 'Forced labour and human trafficking' by Undine Groeger, International Labour Organization (ILO)
- 12.15 Lunch
- 13.15 Workshops, round 1
- Workshop 1. 'Trafficking in a migration scheme – repatriation and moving on' by Anders Lisborg, Denmark
- Workshop 2. 'When trafficking victims decline assistance' by Anette Brunovskis, FAFO, Norway
- Workshop 3. 'Child trafficking and what to do about it' by Mike Dottridge, United Kingdom
- Workshop 4. 'Health consequences of human trafficking' by Siân Oram, London School of Hygiene & Tropical medicine, United Kingdom
- 14.15 Break

HUMAN TRAFFICKING A COMPLEX REALITY

14.45 Workshops, round 2

Workshop 1. 'Trafficking in a migration scheme – repatriation and moving on' by Anders Lisborg, Denmark

Workshop 2. 'When trafficking victims decline assistance' by Anette Brunovskis, FAFO, Norway

Workshop 3. 'Child trafficking and what to do about it' by Mike Dottridge, United Kingdom

Workshop 4. 'Health consequences of human trafficking' by Siân Oram, London School of Hygiene & Tropical medicine, United Kingdom

15.45 Reception in the Foyer - Opportunities for networking

16.30 Conference Closing