Latest information

1. In a communication dated 14 March 2012, the Government of Myanmar has informed the International Labour Office that the Labour Organization Law (LOL) enacted on 11 October 2011 came into force on 9 March 2012. The Labour Organization Rules were signed by the Minister of Labour on 29 February 2012, following their approval of the Cabinet. An unofficial translation of the Labour Organization Rules is annexed. The Chief Registrar has been appointed by the President and the township registrars have been appointed by the Chief Registrar.

2. The Government also refers to workshops aimed at raising awareness about the LOL and its Rules, including the education, during the month of February 2012, of all labour officials in the 77 labour exchange offices under the Department of Labour in seven Regions and seven States. Moreover, 10,000 printed copies of the LOL and its Rules have been distributed throughout the country.

3. Finally, the Government adds that the Settlement of Labour Dispute Bill has now been approved by the Office of the Attorney General and the Cabinet and has been submitted to the Parliament.
