Resolution on the ILO Centenary Declaration for the Future of Work

(adopted on 21 June 2019)

The General Conference of the International Labour Organization, meeting at its 108th Session, 2019,

Having adopted the ILO Centenary Declaration for the Future of Work, invites the Governing Body to ensure the follow-up on, and regular review of, the implementation of the ILO Centenary Declaration for the Future of Work and:

1. Requests the Governing Body to consider, as soon as possible, proposals for including safe and healthy working conditions in the ILO's framework of fundamental principles and rights at work;
2. Invites the Governing Body to request the Director-General to take due account of the Declaration to have its priorities reflected in terms of the content and structure in the 2020–21 and future Programme and Budget proposals for consideration by the Governing Body, with appropriate resources being allocated to these;
3. Calls for the completion, at the earliest opportunity, of the process of ratification of the Instrument of Amendment to the ILO Constitution, 1986, in order to definitively democratize the functioning and composition of the governing bodies of the ILO; and
4. Invites the Governing Body to request the Director-General to submit to the Governing Body proposals aimed at promoting greater coherence within the multilateral system.
