Report of the Committee of Experts on the Application of Conventions and Recommendations (Geneva, 24 November–11 December 2021)

1. The Committee of Experts on the Application of Conventions and Recommendations held its 92nd Session from 24 November to 11 December 2021. It adopted a report which, in accordance with the usual practice, is published as a document for the International Labour Conference¹ and is submitted to the Governing Body at its present session. This report has been published in two parts for the sake of convenience.
2. Under its terms of reference, the Committee was called upon to examine:
 - (a) reports supplied by governments on the application of Conventions that they have ratified (articles 22 and 35 of the Constitution);
 - (b) information supplied by governments on the submission of certain Conventions, Recommendations and Protocols to the competent authorities (article 19 of the Constitution); and
 - (c) reports and supplementary information supplied by governments on the Nursing Personnel Convention, 1977 (No. 149), the Domestic Workers Convention, 2011 (No. 189), the Nursing Personnel Recommendation, 1977 (No. 157) and the Domestic Workers Recommendation, 2011 (No. 201), as decided by the Governing Body (article 19 of the Constitution).
3. In particular, the Governing Body's attention is drawn to the Committee's General Survey entitled Securing decent work for nursing personnel and domestic workers, key actors in the care
