Programme and Budget for 2022–23

Collection of contributions from 1 January 2023 to date

Summary: This paper provides information on the collection of contributions from 1 January 2023 to date and the position of Member States in relation to article 13(4) of the Constitution.

Author unit: Financial Management Department (FINANCE).

Related documents: GB.347/PFA/INF/1/1.

1. This paper provides a summary of contributions received during January and February 2023 and a comparison with the position at 28 February 2022. Appendix I gives details of contributions received during January and February 2023, and the position of contributions and amounts due as at 28 February 2023, subdivided as follows:
 - A. States which have settled their 2023 contributions in full.
 - B. States which have paid part of their 2023 contributions.
 - C. States which have made no payments but have received credits towards their 2023 contributions.
 - D. States which have made no payments, nor received credits, towards their 2023 contributions.
 - E. Amount due by States when they ceased to be Members of the Organization.
2. Appendix II gives details of those Member States which, at 28 February 2023, are two years or more in arrears and which have lost the right to vote under article 13(4) of the Constitution.

▶ Assessed contributions for 2023

3. Total assessed contributions for 2023 amount to 383,742,090 Swiss francs (CHF) the same level as in 2022. Section A of Appendix I lists Member States which, at 28 February 2023, have settled all contributions due through payment. Fifty-seven Member States (with 2023 contributions of CHF84.7 million, representing 22.1 per cent of assessed contributions) were in this position, 36 of which paid their contributions before 1 January 2023. At the corresponding date in 2022, CHF78.0 million, or 20.3 per cent of 2022 assessed contributions, had been received from 53 Member States, 35 of which had paid their contributions before 1 January 2022.
4. Section B lists 18 Member States that have made partial payments against their 2023 contributions. At the corresponding date in 2022, 15 Member States had made partial payments against their 2022 contributions. Section C lists 61 Member States which have made no payments but received credits against their 2023 contributions. At the corresponding date in 2022, 96 Member States had made no payments but received credits against their 2022 contributions. Section D lists 51 Member States which have made no payments nor received credits against their 2023 contributions. At the corresponding date in 2022, 23 Member States had made no payments nor received credits against their 2022 contributions.
5. At 28 February 2023, total payments received against 2023 contributions thus totalled CHF98.7 million or 25.7 per cent of assessed contributions, as against CHF91.6 million, or 23.9 per cent at the corresponding date in 2022.

▶ Arrears of contributions

6. At 31 December 2022, contributions outstanding amounted to CHF172.1 million. At 28 February 2023, CHF97.0 million or 56.3 per cent had been received against these outstanding contributions. At the corresponding date in 2022, CHF89.2 million had been received representing 56.0 per cent of the contributions outstanding at 31 December 2021 of CHF159.4 million.

▶ Summary of contributions received

7. Total assessed contributions for 2023 received up to 28 February 2023 and arrears received up to the same date, amounted to CHF195.7 million and are summarized as follows:

	Swiss francs
Assessed contributions for 2023 received	98 670 449
Arrears of contributions received	96 980 761
Total contributions received	195 651 210

▶ Position of Member States in relation to article 13(4) of the Constitution

8. A table listing Member States that had lost the right to vote on account of being two years or more in arrears on 28 February 2023 is attached as Appendix II. The total of 29 Member States in this position compares with 27 at the corresponding date in 2022. A further 6 Member States have arrears of contributions that exceed the amount of the contributions due from them for the past two full years (2021–22) but are permitted to vote in accordance with the provisions of article 13(4) of the Constitution under financial arrangements approved by the International Labour Conference.
