

Training for Judges

Training for judges on Refugees, International Labour Standards and Labour Law was carried out for 32 judges particularly working in labour and social security courts on 11 and 12 April 2019 in Ankara. Awareness raising on human rights and the concepts of migration were provided among participants where court cases were also discussed particularly for Refugees related to labour issues.

ILO @Ipekyolu Career Day

Ipekyolu Career Day organised by Gaziantep University in cooperation with 10 Universities from Region on 11 and 12 April 2019 in Gaziantep with the participation of private sector, public sector and Universities representatives. ILO had a stand to disseminate information on SDGs and ILOs work both in global and national contexts.

An informative session took place at the Ipekyolu Career Day where ILO staff presented Global Commissions Report on Future of Work, the interest shown by participants ILOs refugee response programme and SDGs as well as future of work were appreciated.

Training @ITC-ILO - Training programmes received trainees from Turkey; one was on 'Project Cycle Management Training' between 1 and 12 April 2019 partially in Turin, two officers from Presidency Office of the Republic of Turkey attended to the training and returned with very positive feedbacks. Other one was on 'Market Based Livelihoods Training' at ITC-ILO in Turin between 8 and 12 April 2019 and an officer from Turkish Employment Agency and project staff attended where national and international experiences were shared among participants.

The Hackathon Participants; Entrepreneur Candidates !

On 23-24 March and 5-7 April 2019, 2 hackathons on mobile map application, smart cities, PCB was organised by the Gaziantep University Technology Transfer Office with the support of ILO.

30 team (4 Syrian team) participated the competition and presented their pilot applications to the evaluation committee consisting of the private sector representatives. ILO team was also participated to event and supported the students in presenting their projects to the committees.

Regional workshop in Amman

South-South Technical Cooperation (SSTC) brought together ILO constituents from Iraq, Lebanon, Jordan Turkey between 15-19 April 2019 to share challenges and best practice in addressing Syrian refugee crisis in Amman. The Turkey's delegation was composed of representatives from UIGM, SGK, İŞKUR, TİSK, ADASO, GSO, KESK, HAK-İŞ, DiSK, Türk-İş and KESK in addition to 3 ILO representatives. Overall,